Defend, for all People, the Right to Life, Liberty,
Property, and the Pursuit of Happiness.

"Most politicians sell-out, and this is only encouraged by the current status-quo. The only way Americans can regain representation in their republic is by voting differently."

Alec Pavlik is a lifelong Florida resident, Constitutionalist, and Conservative Christian. After spending over a decade providing political commentary and seeing little progress from the major parties he has decided to run for Congress as a self-funded write-in candidate.
